WILL PAVE WITH VITRIFIED BRICK

City to Improve Buchanan Street.

Work To Begin As Early As Practicable

—Will Be Paved Under Hunter Ordinance Whereby Citizens Owning Abutting Property Are To Pay One Fourth of Cost—Complaint As to Screaming Auto Whistles—Other Business.

The Board of Aldermen in adjourned session yesterday afternoon passed an ordinance regarding the paving of Buchanan street from Elm street to a point at the northwest corner of the Hufine hotel with vitrified brick and citing all persons, firms or corporations owning property abutting said street between the points named to appear before the aldermen at the next regular meeting on Friday afternoon, Oct. 14, to show cause, if any they have, why the street should not be paved and why the property owners should not be taxed with one fourth of the cost of putting down the new pavement.

The portion of the street to be paved contains about six hundred square yards, the estimated cost of putting down the brick being $225 per yard, the best quality of brick to be used. In addition there are about five hundred square yards between the street and the passenger station that will have to be paved, this being used by hotel busses and baggage wagons, for the accommodation of passengers and the moving of their baggage. The cost of putting this down will be paid by the Southern, which owns the property.

The street is the worst in the city, despite the fact that excepting Elm it is used more than any other street. And it is viewed by hundreds of passengers daily. The Southern has already signified its willingness to bear its proportionate part of the cost. The entire cost to the city will be something like $800. It is proposed to lower the street next the station something like a foot, making the street more level, but it is not known whether the railway officials will assent to this or not. If it is done the appearance of the street will be greatly improved and in addition the pavement will not be so slippery and dangerous in wet weather.

A petition was received from Mr. C. H. Ireland, asking that the city take some steps to put a stop to the unearthly screaming of auto whistles or horns. He mentioned one instance where an auto was driven up and down the main thoroughfare of the city, the whistle emitting an unearthly noise. All the members of the board were of the opinion that there should be a check on the promiscuous auto tooting. Some of the members had heard the whistle mentioned by Mr. Ireland and declared that it was a regular nuisance. After a discussion the matter was referred to the committee that drew the ordinance pertaining to auto drivers with a request that the committee ascertain how auto "tooting" is regulated in other cities and draw up an ordinance to cover the case. It is possible that Greensboro will fall in line with a number of larger cities and require that all auto horns and whistles be tuned to the same key.

The request of the mass meeting that the city publish the proposed charter was accepted by the board by Mr. C. C. McLean. Alderman Ellington moved that Mayor Stafford be authorized to have 1000 copies published in pamphlet form. This was carried.

Mr. S. P. Jones was granted a license to sell meats on West Lee street.

Mr. S. S. Brown wanted authority to extend Broad avenue 1200 feet farther east. This was referred to the Street Commission. Mr. G. C. Hampton asked that the curbing on Tate street abutting his property be lowered. This was referred to the street commission also. A petition from property owners on East Market street between Elm and Davie, asking that the street be repaved or macadamized, was received. The Street Commission stated that the intention was to respike the street and put on a new coat of gravel. Petitions asking for lights at the corner of Forbis and Spencerville and on Elm street beyond the railroad crossing were referred to the Water & Light Commission.

Mrs. C. L. Blanchard wanted the city to pave her sidewalk on Tate street in lieu of damages promised for damage to her property on account of raising the street. Referred to Street Commission. Mr. J. F. Jordan was allowed $22.25 damages done his sidewalk while Edgeworth street was being macadamized several years ago. Jos. J. Stone & Co. were allowed a rebate on taxes, an error having been made by the Corporation Commission in figuring the corporate excess. On motion of Alderman Albright the city clerk was instructed to pay Capt. F. P. Hobgood $75 for serving as temporary judge of Municipal court during the absence of Judge Eure.

WEIGHING SOCIAL.

Enjoyable Affair Given by Friends' Christian Endeavor Society Last Night.

A thoroughly enjoyable affair was given last night by the Christian Endeavor society of the Friends' meeting, a large number of young people being present, despite the unfavorable weather. Unique invitations has been sent out, inviting the friends of the society to "Friendly Hall," where a weighing and musical social was to take place.

An enjoyable program was rendered, there being a piano solo by Miss Jackson, a recitation by Miss Kerner, solos by Miss Harris and Mr. Clapp and a recitation by Miss Cartland.

Miss Marguerite Cartland then took charge and the amusing feature of the evening took place. Eight persons were directed to eight different portions of the room, these being required to select from the crowd until every person had been selected. On group gave a singing contest, another a cracker eating contest, another group tried for the honors of carrying a peanut to the door on a knife blade, another group was compelled to orate or recite, another was required to blow out a candle blindfolded, another held a spelling match, another pulled a flag drawing match, the participants being blindfolded, while still another blindfolded group experimented on pouring spoonfuls of water into each person's mouth. These contests furnished endless amusement for all.

After the games the young ladies served delicious sherbert and cake.

As each guest came into the hall, a pair of scales stood handy, the charge being 10 cents for each 100 pounds of fraction thereof. A great sam was realized by the society.

CAME FAR TO WED

Couple From Nelson County, Va., United In Marriage Here Yesterday—It Was a Runaway Match.

Mr. Raymond G. Wood and Miss Edna Foster, of Nelson county, Va., were married yesterday afternoon in this city by Justice of the Peace D. H. Collins. The ceremony was solemnized at 2:30 o'clock in the office of the squire on West Market street.

The couple arrived on No. 7 yesterday. The bride-to-be was left in the waiting room at the depot and the groom-elect went out to arrange the preliminaries. He saw a friendly looking bluecoat in the person of Officer Iseley and asked him what the prospects were for his making the matrimonial trip in safety here. The officer tendered his services and after the license had been secured, witnessed the ceremony.

The couple sat in the depot the best part of the remainder of the day and the early part of last night waiting to catch No. 28. It was a runaway match and both the parties, especially the groom, appeared very nervous. The groom confided to one of his newly formed acquaintances here that when he boarded the train to go to attend his wedding it was the first time he ever rode on a train.

Notice To Registrars.

To the Registrars of Guilford County: Gentlemen:—The registration books are required by law to be opened this year on Saturday, Oct. 8 for additional registration of voters for the general election in November. And I wish to request every registrar to call at my office between now and October 7 and get the registration and poll books for his precinct; also copies of the state constitution, state election law and other necessary data and stationery.

Respectfully,
T. J. MURPHY,
Chairman Guilford County Board of Elections.

Bicycle Shop Broken Into.

Wednesday night Mr. W. H. Dorsett's bicycle and repair shop, on Davie street, was feloniously entered and several weapons were taken. The thief gained entrance by the front door. It was only a few months ago that the shop was broken into and several articles were stolen.

The Ireland Bible Class room will accommodate more than one hundred resident Alumnae, some test its capacity.

GETTING READY FOR THE FAIR

Is Only Twelve Days Off.

Secretary Daniel Arranging All Details and Everything Will Be In Applepie Order When Gates Are Swung Open—Free Attractions, Good Shows and the Finest Exhibits Ever Seen At Grounds.

Every detail is being arranged for the Central Carolina Fair, which is now only twelve days off. Next week the buildings will be swept out for the last time and the work of placing the exhibits will begin. In fact nearly all the exhibits will be in place by the end of the week. And on Monday before the fair the food products will be brought in and put in place, the eating booths will be put up and the final details carried out so on Tuesday morning, Oct. 11, everything will be in apple pie order when the gates are swung back and the crowds on the outside are invited inside.

As has been stated heretofore the fair will be bigger and better than ever before. A glance at Secretary Daniel's entry book will convince any person, no matter how skeptical, that the exhibits this year will be better and more numerous than ever. Practically every foot of available space has been taken already, something that has never occurred so early before. There is a possibility of having to erect an additional building or turn down some of the applications for space. The agricultural hall is going to be filled to overflowing, an interesting and instructive feature of this department being the corn exhibit of the boys participating in the corn contest. Then the poultry department will be better than ever before. The Guilford Poultry Association has this in charge and many entries are being made by the local fanners.

There will be shows galore on the midway and these will be of a higher class than those of previous years. In an effort to eliminate all but the best Secretary Daniel has turned down several applications for space. Of course, one or two sorry shows will get in, but the people will soon find them out. As a rule the shows will be above the ordinary.

Then the free attractions will be better than ever and will include horse racing to balloon racing, with many less dangerous feats mixed in.

SEPTEMBER BLACKBERRIES

Plentiful On a Vacant Lot In Greensboro and Also on Farm on R. F. D. 7.

Mrs. Susan Byrd, 210 Gilbert street, and Mrs. T. B. Moody, of Chatham county, witnessed a blackberry picking yesterday in a vacant lot between Vance and Arlington streets. The berries were gathered and carried to the home of Mrs. W. G. Hackney, where Mrs. Moody is visiting, and they were used in baking a pie for dinner. Mrs. Moody is 76 years old, and says that she has never seen blackberries gathered in September before. Mr. A. C. Wray, of R. F. D. 7, yesterday brought to The Telegram office some as nice berries as any that grow in the regular season. Mr. Wray says that there are plenty of them on his farm that are ripe and as there are plenty of green ones he expects to have them for some time yet if the frost does not destroy them. He intends to cultivate these September berries next season and put them on the market.

Died In Tennessee.

Brothers and sisters here have received news of the death of Mrs. Jennie Foust, whose death occurred Thursday, Sept. 22, at her home in Ripley, Tenn., after an illness of two weeks. Mrs. Foust was 70 years of age and is survived by nine children. Two brothers and two sisters residing in Greensboro survive also. They are Messrs. E. D. and A. J. Patterson and Mrs. E. A. Crawford and Mrs. Margaret Albright.

Permit For Residence.

Building Inspector Milton yesterday issued a permit to Mr. C. W. Smith for the erection of a six room residence on Park avenue. The estimated cost is $2,000.

Officers and chairman be in your places at 4 p. m. on Saturday, Oct. 1. Place, new Sunday school building of West Market Street church.

MADE A BREAK FOR LIBERTY

Attempted Jail Delivery in Wake.

Timely Arrival of Raleigh Chief of Police Prevents Escape of Prisoners—Jailer Had Been Floored—B. F. Dixon, Jr., Will Likely Be the Successor To Late State Auditor Dixon—Candidate To Be Named by Democratic Executive Committee.

Raleigh, Sept. 29.—The arrival of Chief of Police Stell, barefooted and clad only in his night clothes, but having his good revolver in hand, at the outer door of the Wake county jail early this morning in response to calls for help that came from the prison, was all that prevented a general jail delivery. Assistant Jailer O. O. Green had entered the main corridor hurriedly, thinking that all the prisoners were in their cells, but Aey Bunn, a desperate negro just sentenced to two years for robbing the cash register of Julius Heller's shoe store, had hidden behind a bathtub, covering himself with a blanket, and when the jailer stooped over to gather up some tin plates to serve breakfast, Bunn leaped on his back and bore him to the floor while other prisoners rushed from their cells and helped to lock the helpless jailer in a cell. Thereafter the whole lot made for freedom, carrying with them the jailer's keys. They succeeded in working their way through all the doors to the outer one where they were stopped and made to return to their cells at the point of a revolver through the opportune arrival of Chief of Police Stell, who lives close by and was attracted by the calls for help made by the imprisoned jailer.

It is believed that some warm campaigning is ahead in the Fourth Congressional district through an agreement between Congressman E. W. Pou and Hon. R. A. P. Cooley of Nash county, for a joint canvass, Mr. Cooley being the independent Democratic candidate for Congress with the endorsement of the Republicans of the district. The dates for the joint discussions of the issues are: Siler City, Oct. 10; Pittsboro, 11; Henderson, 12; Louisburg, 14; Springhope, 15; Smithfield, 24; Kenley, 26; Raleigh, 27, at night. The Raleigh discussion will close the joint canvass.

Charters were issued today to The Freeman Drug Co., Burlington, $5000 capital by A. F. Barnett and others; Siler City Milling Co., capital $25,000; by J. H. Stout and others; for grain milling and cotton ginning. The Eno Hunting Club (Inc.) Durham; W. T. Pollard principal incorporator, no capital; Peter's Creek Union Milling Co., of Smith, Stokes county, capital $10,000, for operating grist and flouring mills. W. M. Overby principal incorporator.

There is also an amendment to the charter of the Carolina Automobile Co., Charlotte, changing the name to the Rambler Automobile Co.

The State department of insurance announces the 121st conviction for the crime of arson through prosecution by the department since its establishment by the legislature a number of years ago. The latest is Jim Echols, Lumberton, convicted of setting fire to the town jail.

State Chairman A. H. Eller, of the Democratic executive committee, says he is determined to have no undue haste in the assembling of the state committee to select a candidate for state auditor. Besides the regard he has for the proprieties bearing on the sad death of the late auditor, he wants the people of the state to have time to cast about and let their committeemen know who their choice really is so that the vote of the committee will to the fullest extent reflect the choice of the people. It is understood that a temporary state auditor will be commissioned tomorrow and that he will be B. F. Dixon, Jr., son of the late auditor, the purpose being for him to serve until an auditor is elected by the people and qualified. Young Dixon is now a practicing attorney in this city. The report that this appointment is to be made meets with very general approval.

There are a number of candidate being talked here in connection with the nomination, especially notable being Major E. J. Hale, Fayetteville; Capt. S. A. Ashe, Capt. W. T. R. Bell.

THRILLING EXHIBITION BY RED MEN TONIGHT.

Grand Parade on South Elm Street, Followed by Battle With Whites in the Auditorium.

While many people are not aware of the fact there are numerous Indians in the city and should they chance to be on South Elm street tonight about eight o'clock they will see great swarms of the redskins tramping along Elm street, gorgeously bedecked with feathers and besmeared with the hideous war paint. Then if they will go to the Auditorium they will be given the opportunity of witnessing a sham battle between these redskins and a band of pale faces, the climax coming when the chief of the paleface band is captured and burned at the stake.

This thrilling exhibition will be pulled off by Minnesota Tribe of Red Men, assisted by the members of the tribe. Revolution and White Oak, also members from High Point, Lexington and perhaps other places. The Red Men elsewhere request the merchants to cut out their electric signs on South Elm between the hour of 7:45 and 8:15 in order that their parade can be made more spectacular.

The Great Pontiac will lead the parade, followed by the Great Jossakeeds and his chiefs. The Great Kewen will trail the forest around the wigwam to see if there are any whites prowling around. The Indians will pitch their teepees in the big building, where the paleface band has already located. The scouts of the two bands will discover the tents of each faction and the grand meele will follow. The Indians being superior in numbers will, of course, be the victors, and the leader of the white men will be captured. Then he will be burned at the stake, while the Indians dance in glee as he writhes in the cruel flames.

Owing to the fact that the Red Men have to pay for the use of the building and also for the lights, etc., a small fee of 25 cents will be charged. All children under 10 years old admitted free. Tickets can be secured at Farris-Klutz Drug Co. and Wade's Place. The exhibition will be given rain or shine.

Notice To Business Men.

The Red Men request through the daily papers that the business men on Elm street from Gaston to the station cut out their signs and other street lights between 7:45 and 8:15 o'clock tonight on account of the parade of the Improved Order of Red Men.

A SURPRISE MARRIAGE.

Miss Bessie Watson and Mr. W. G. Jenkins Wedded Yesterday.

Their many friends in this city will learn with surprise of the marriage of Miss Bessie Watson and Mr. W. G. Jenkins, which occurred yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in Thomasville. Not even their closest relatives were told of the approaching marriage ceremony.

Miss Watson, who is the accomplished daughter of Mr. W. A. Watson, Walker avenue, went to Thomasville Wednesday to visit at the home of Mr. L. B. Thomas. Mr. Jenkins, who has been head miller for W. A. Watson & Sons for the past 12 years, secured leave of absence yesterday morning, explaining that he wished to take in the Appalachian Exposition. He hid himself to Thomasville on the noon train and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins left after the ceremony for Salisbury and today will go to Knoxville to attend the exposition. From there they will visit Cincinnati and other points before returning home.

SERVICES CONTINUE

West Market Revival To Go On Through Second Week.

The revival services at West Market Street Methodist church have been marked by such interest that it has been decided to continue them through this week, making two weeks that these services will have lasted. Rev. Mr. McLarty, the pastor, preached an especially able and convincing sermon last night. He said that the unsaved ought not to wait to "feel like it" before deciding to seek salvation. It was one's duty, he said, to believe on Jesus Christ, a duty which appealed to the spirit of heroism, to the intelligence and to the courage of the individual. He urged the unsaved not to trifle with the heavenly vision. A large congregation was present.

To Speak At Hillsboro.

Mr. C. Clifford Frazier, Republican candidate for solicitor, will make a political address at Hillsboro tonight in the interest of the candidacy of Congressional Nominee D. H. Blair. Mr. Frazier will open his campaign for the solicitorship before long.

TO CLEAN UP FOR THE FAIR

The City Will be Made Attractive.

At Meeting of Aldermen Yesterday Afternoon It Was Decided To Designate Next Week As "Cleaning Up Week" and Have Wagons To Haul Off Trash—The Women To Co-Operate With Officials In the Work.

The week beginning Monday, Oct. 3, has been designated as "cleaning up week" and a concerted effort will be made to have every nook and corner cleaned up for the fair, when thousands of visitors will visit the city. This was decided at yesterday's meeting of the aldermen, every member being in favor of getting all the trash and garbage possible carted out of the city. The Board of Health was authorized to secure, if necessary, a team for each ward and have a rush campaign. The small fee of 5 cents per can will be charged for carting off the trash and garbage.

The civic department of the Women's Club has promised its assistance in the work and the Chamber of Commerce will also lend its influence. The ladies will at once begin a strenuous campaign to induce every person in the city to assist in cleaning up by getting rid of the piles of trash and garbage that has been accumulating in the back yards, and front yards also, during the past several months. It will be remembered that something like a year ago the civic league inaugurated a "cleaning up" and the city was rid of hundreds of wagon loads of trash and rubbish. It is hoped that the work this time will be even more thorough than on the former occasion.

The movement was first agitated by the Chamber of Commerce, the sanitary committee having no objection. This report was referred to the aldermen, who in turn referred it to the Board of Health. This body recommended that the idea was a capital one and the board ordered the work done. President Justice, of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mayor Stafford will likely issue a proclamation today or tomorrow, proclaiming next week as "cleaning up week," and the Board of Health, assisted by the civic department of the Woman's club will at once get busy.

Armed with the proclamations the ladies will begin the agitation. This will most probably begin today and the school children will be brought into action, especially members of the Junior Civic League. The children will be urged to collect all trash, rubbish and garbage around the yards of their homes and place it convenient for the trash wagons. They will also be asked to secure the assistance of their parents. In this way the entire city can be completely covered. But here the ladies will not stop. They will doubtless have a committee appointed and place a member in each neighborhood for the purpose of agitating the matter.

The complete details will be given as far as possible in Sunday's Telegram, together with the schedules for the several streets, so the residents will know the day and possibly the hour the wagons will be on their particular street. In that way they can have their trash and rubbish convenient for the wagon when it arrives.

So for the next ten days the slogan will be "Clean up." Every citizen should take pride in the city and endeavor to have it as clean as possible for the fair. In this way many visitors will be favorably impressed with the city, whereas if they see only littered yards and piles of rubbish adorning the premises they will put Greensboro citizens down as a shiftless lot.

Eight-Year-Old Boy Kills Baby.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 28.—The 15-months-old son of Henry Madden, of Lurach, Giles county, was instantly killed by his 8-year-old brother, Dick Madden, when a gun with which he was playing was accidentally discharged.

The family were accustomed to load a gun every night for protection and when they got up yesterday the gun was missing. They were searching for it when they heard an explosion in the adjoining room. The infant was found dead.

AMERICA A LACE CENTER.

Large Plant Equipped for Production of Superior Grades.

Chicago Inter-Ocean.
America will soon be the leading lace producing country of the world is the prediction of a prominent Eastern manufacturer, who talked of the wonderful strides being made in the manufacture of this textile.

Down at Elyria, Ohio, the beautiful park city, a large plant has just been opened for the production of superior grades of lace upon which much of the textile fame of England, France and Germany is based. Lace workers, with their marvelous machines for lace making and its sequence, have been imported from Nottingham. They have the formula and the material to manufacture lace products that will be superior, it is said, to any importation, and for this feminine America is happy, as it will mean a saving on duty and the extra cost of having been made in this country or that.

From several quarters came the "inside" story of the newly established industry, the plant of which houses hundreds upon hundreds of acres of finely woven, beautifully patterned Elyria lace—veritable feminine fairyland—for under a single roof are gathered all the secrets of evolving laces that excel the production of Europe. Nottingham lace workers—scores of them—marvelous machines, each of which it takes two weeks to thread and make ready for the turning out of beautiful acres of filmy laces for inner and outer garments for feminine America.

Forty million yards of cotton thread are needed to thread each of these machines—a string of thread that would extend west from Elyria factory through San Francisco and the Golden Gate, across the Pacific, clear through the Orient, Asia and Europe, spanning Great Britain, Ireland and the Atlantic Ocean, and which reaching America, would extend into the east entrance of the factory from the other side of the world—a thread long enough to be completely wound around the world.

It is quite likely that the Pennsylvania Railroad spent $100,000 in transporting Mr. Roosevelt on his gaudiest circuits and his bear-hunting trips, but we do not believe that Mr. John H. Mr. Roosevelt used the railroads and the United States Navy with equal freedom for his recreations, and the railroads probably charged the costs up to advertising.

A PEACH CARNIVAL.

Gold Mine Possibilities of Ozark Fruit Belt.

Cincinnati Times-Star.
A peach carnival was held recently in Bransville, Mo., and the event has attained a more than local importance. The Ozark country in the southwestern part of the State, it seems, is the future orchard spot of America.

The peaches there are characterized by a flavor, a lusciousness and a richness that would have done justice to the fabled apples of the Hesperides. Their downy cheeks blushing in the warm Southern sunshine are a sight to make the heart glad.

But the significance of the Bransville carnival lay in the fact that it was a part of the movement now being put forward in Missouri to relieve the congestion of the cities and to give discouraged city dwellers the chance of a lifetime on a farm.

The movement has the support of men like Governor Hadley, Archibald Glenn, former Governor D. R. Francis and the State Commissioner of Immigration. The idea is to send deserving and industrious families to the peach belt and give them a helping hand until they get started.

The wonder is that any inducement should be necessary. The lure of the city is undeniable, but if a great gold discovery were to be reported in Missouri there would be a rush to this Eldorado such as resulted from the strike in California.

In the Ozark region there is little gold, but there are peaches which are worth their weight in precious metal and the supply is practically inexhaustible. For the young man who is not making good in a business or professional way and who sees no prospect of great riches, farming or fruit raising point the road to independence and success.

His Mistake.

Life.
The mistake of Senator Lorimer's political life was not in joining the Rough Riders. Much is forgiven Rough Riders.

When you see the word "Mother" on a fence, in the road, in the papers, or on card board in the show windows, think of Mother's Joy, the only salve made that will absolutely cure pneumonia in twenty-four hours. Goose Grease Company.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause breakdowns. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is no "cure-all" humbug, but is made for just one purpose—to cure the weaknesses, painful disorders and irregularities of the womanly organism. It is

THE ONE REMEDY for these ailments, sold by druggists, devised and gotten up by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in treating woman's peculiar diseases and is carefully adapted to work in harmony with her delicate organization, by an experienced and skilled specialist in her maladies.

THE ONE REMEDY for woman's ailments, sold by druggists, which contains neither alcohol (which to most women is the rankest poison) or other injurious or habit-forming drugs.

THE ONE REMEDY for women, the composition of which is so perfect and good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient, in plain English on its outside bottle-wrapper, and attest the correctness of the same under oath—thus taking its users into their full confidence, and warranting physicians in prescribing it in their worst cases, which they do very largely.

It is foolish as well as dangerous to take medicine the composition of which you know nothing. Therefore, don't let a dishonest druggist prevail on you to accept a secret nostrum for this professionally approved medicine of KNOWN COMPOSITION. Every ingredient in its make-up has the strongest indorsement of the leading medical men of all the several schools of practice. Send postal card request for free Booklet of same.

Every woman may write fully and confidentially to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and may be sure that her case will receive careful, conscientious, confidential consideration, and that the best medical advice in the world will be given to her, absolutely free.

In addition to this free advice, Dr. Pierce will send a fine French cloth-bound copy of his great 1000-page book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser," to any woman who will send 31 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They work in harmony with "Favorite Prescription" when needed as a gentle laxative. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

RATTLESNAKE BITES.

Simple Rules For Treatment if You Have the Nerve to Use Them.

The treatment of a rattlesnake wound resolves itself into the application of a few very simple rules. In the first place, a person wounded by a snake usually does the very thing he should not do--that is, goes tearing off at top speed for the nearest human habitation, thereby increasing the circulation and disseminating the virus through the system more rapidly. The man should sit calmly down and bind his handkerchief around the limb (if it is a limb), break off a stout twig and insert beneath the handkerchief, producing a rude tourniquet, and twist until the circulation is effectually shut off.

With a sharp knife make an X incision over the wound, taking care to penetrate deeper than the fangs have done. If he has good teeth and no canker in his mouth, he may now suck vigorously upon the wound. It does no good to suck the original wound. It is quite difficult to get any virus back through an opening not greater in caliber than a fine needle.

If all this is done without delay the chances are that the patient will suffer no greater inconvenience from his experience. If he chances to have handy a stick of silver nitrate he can cauterize the wound thoroughly. Failing that, a brand from the fire will serve. After a time he may release his tourniquet somewhat and permit a portion of the retained blood to enter the circulation. The system is capable of taking care of a great deal of poison if it is allowed to flow into the blood gradually.--Outing.

SET HIM THINKING.

The Reason His Wife Gave For Disliking Postponements.

Just when Mrs. Ackroyd had finished packing her trunks and after William Ackroyd had bought railway tickets for her and their two daughters little Bessie came down with a severe case of whooping cough. The doctor positively refused to let the child start on a long journey, and even if he had thought it safe for the little one to leave home he assured Mrs. Ackroyd that she would not be permitted to take the patient into a hotel anywhere. "Isn't it a shame?" the distressed lady wailed. "Here we are with everything in our trunks, and my husband has even bought our berths in the sleeper."

"It is unfortunate, but I don't know what you can do except sit down and wait four or five days. It may be safe then for you to start away."

When her husband got home that evening Mrs. Ackroyd was weeping. "Don't take it so hard, dear," he said. "It might be a good deal worse. Our little one is likely to get along all right. The doctor says the case isn't an unusually severe one, and when I telephoned him this afternoon he said he thought it might be safe for you to start away by the end of the week."

"I know. He told me the same thing. But I feel that we'll never go. I never postponed anything yet that didn't turn out badly. I once postponed a wedding, and the marriage never took place."

Half an hour later William Ackroyd was still sitting in a corner alone thinking it over.--Chicago Record-Herald.

Carrying a Bundle.

A stylish looking woman who looked as if she had rather die than carry a bundle that wouldn't go into a hand-bag went into the women's suit department of a big store juggling a paste-board box half as big as herself. Other customers present wondered at her undignified action, but the saleswoman did not wonder.

"There is one time when the proudest woman on earth will carry a bundle," she said. "That is when some garment has been sent home finished off badly and has to be brought back for alterations. If the customer would only telephone to the store we would send for the garment, but that would take time. She wants it finished without delay, and rather than wait she brings it down herself."--New York Sun.

Alaska's Coast Region.

The coast region of Alaska has a mild climate, not colder than the northern part of Puget sound or of Scotland. The stand of trees is dense, averaging for considerable areas 25,000 feet per acre. Sitka spruce forming about 20 per cent of the stand and western hemlock about 75 per cent. Although by far the most abundant species, western hemlock does not produce as large individual trees as the spruce or western red cedar, the former occasionally showing a diameter of six feet with a height of 150 feet and the cedar diameters of from three to four feet.

Those Questions.

Wadsworth (at the telephone)--Hello! Is this Main 3967? Voice at the Other End--Yes. Who do you want to see? Wadsworth--Is Mr. Hammersley there? Voice at the Other End--Yes. Do you want to talk to him? Wadsworth--No. I want to kiss him.--Chicago Record-Herald.

Keeping His Word.

"Mr. Dustin Stax said he was going to retire with a fortune." "He has kept his word. Whenever he goes to sleep he puts his wallet and his check book under his pillow."--Washington Star.

Man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands do likewise.--Life.

Atlanta has 154,839 people, but Richmond is taking comfort from the fact that the Georgia city has more than twice the area of Richmond.

Wednesday's issue of the Winston Sentinel was a thirtieth anniversary and fashion edition and constituted a splendid testimonial to the efficiency, energy and industry of the Sentinel force.

Richmond now boasts a population of 127,628. The census report gives the gain as 50.1 per cent, but a part of this gain was due to the absorption of Manchester by Richmond. But with all discounts, "Royal Richmond" is a sizable town—larger than any in the States of West Virginia, North Carolina, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, South Carolina, Texas or Oklahoma.

The decision of the Board of Aldermen yesterday to designate next week as "cleaning up week" will, we believe, meet with very general and hearty approval. Thousands of visitors will be here for the fair and it is to the interest of every one to have the city as clean and attractive as possible. We trust the people generally will lend every possible encouragement in the work and if this is done the city will be rid of hundreds of loads of unsightly trash and rubbish.

Yesterday's proceedings at Saratoga show that the Republican party in New York is rent almost from turret to foundation—stone and that it will be almost impossible to repair the breach before the November election.—Baltimore Sun.

If the Democrats don't win in New York this time, it will be a miracle that will save the G. O. P. Never was the latter party more divided against itself. The Sun truly says that the Republican party in New York State is "rent almost from turret to foundation stone." The Progressives (so called) have won their fight but the Old Guard are mad clean through. There'll be some knifing done in November.

The Mayor of Houston, Texas, spoke in Richmond Wednesday night on the commission form of government. Among other interesting facts that he recited was the spending by Houston of one and three quarter million dollars for public improvements since the commission form of government was adopted. Presumably Houston had just about to go the limit in bonded indebtedness to do this, but the circumstance of its having invested so largely in improvements indicates that it has been up and doing. A city, to grow and to make the most of its advantages, is obliged to invest largely in permanent improvements.

The "Questions and Answers" column in the larger newspapers of the country are always a well of interest and entertainment. The "human interest" element therein is much more noticeable than in the average news story. Thus "Cyrus" asks the Baltimore Sun the question, "Is life worth living?" There's something to pay with one of the Sun's editors, else the answer to this question would not begin "It depends." To quote the answer in full:

It depends upon the point of view. One's life may be important and much worth while to others, though uninteresting to one's self—to dependent children, for instance. It is worth while to one's self so long as it seems worth while. Whether it is worth while absolutely is a question too large for this column.

It is worth while absolutely, or it would not be given by a creator who does nothing that is useless or unnecessary. The Sun's answer does not show the faith and the optimism which might be expected. If a man thinks that the question as to whether life is worth while is debatable he ought to keep it to himself, but we fancy that there are very few who so think.

One of the greatest business developments of modern times, both in importance and in intelligence, is American advertising. We say American, because the psychology and knowledge of the public which are required in this country today are unknown to advertisers or advertising agents on the other side. From the point of view of efficiency, of originality, it is an absolutely new business, having little in common with the old accidental methods.—Collier's Weekly.

Few people fully appreciate what a big subject advertising is. Few realize what a field for effort and energy it comprises. Advertising is salesmanship and, remembering this and knowing that salesmanship is a large part of the business of today, one gains some conception of what advertising is or may be. There is no salesmanship without advertising for when a salesman is displaying an article of merchandise he is, in a way, advertising it. Advertising, in the common acceptance of the term, however, means salesmanship by use of the printed word. Just in proportion as it is handled with brains and judgment, just in that proportion is it capable and effective salesmanship. There is hardly a business that would not be more successful than it is, if the proper attention were paid to advertising.

A Fine Yield of Pears.
Mr. M. W. Sterne, proprietor of the McAdoo hotel, owns a farm just west of town and on it are some fine fruit trees. He says these trees have been unusually prolific this year especially the pear trees. On one of the latter he estimates that there were fully fifty bushels. Some of them rotted and some fell before they were ripe, but the most of them ripened and were gathered.

His Mother Dead.
Mr. Albert Wyrick, steward at the McAdoo hotel, was called to Brown Summit night before last by news of the death of his mother.

It isn't so much the good he expects to hear of himself that prompts the eavesdropper as the bad he expects to hear of his neighbors.

CLIP HOUSEHOLD COUPONS

And Secure Valuable Premiums With Them.

You are not obliged to sign a contract or take the paper for any fixed period. Just keep getting it, as long as you like it, and cut out the coupon on Page 2 every day. Then, when you see the premium you want, bring the amount of cash required and it is yours at a fraction of what an article of equal value would cost you.

Beautiful Mission Clocks, Mantel Clocks, Spoons, Forks, Knives, Thermal Bottles, Lamps, Fireless Cookers, and other valuable utilities.

Don't be disappointed if the first premium announced is not your "pet"—it is pleasing someone else. Whatever your taste we have the article, and when it is announced you will be pleased.

Caution: Only a complete set of 30 coupons of consecutive numbers will be accepted in connection with this premium offer, and under no circumstances will back numbers of this newspaper be sold to premium buyers. You can start any time. All that is necessary is to save your coupons daily for 30 issues.

The Household Premium Coupon will be run in each regular issue for an indefinite period on Page 2, each day bearing its proper date and number. Cut out the coupon every day, save the coupons until you have 30 in consecutive number and date. Then bring or send them to The Telegram office and get your selection.

Remember, you are not compelled to pay a few cents extra each week, year after year—just take the paper while you care to—as long as you like us—as long as we make good. That's it! If we make good—take the paper—and get the advantages a live newspaper can give you.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do in ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by druggists, Price 75c. per bottle.

A Tribute of Affection.
Something of the sympathetic kindness of nature of the late Frederick Greenwood came out in a little speech made by J. M. Barrie on the occasion of Mr. Greenwood's seventy-fifth birthday, when the men who had worked under him on the St. James' and the Pall Mall Gazette met to do him honor. In the course of his remarks Mr. Barrie confessed that he had bought his first silk hat "to impress" the veteran editor. Then he added impulsively: "Oh, Greenwood, it is for your kindness to us boys in our first silk hats that we love you!"

Change of Front.
The Groom—Great heavens, who is this coming up? The Bride—Why, that is Aunt Maria! The Groom—Well, have I got to embrace that old fairy? The Bride—Sh! It was she that sent us the handsome silver service. She's worth thousands. The Groom (kissing her rapturously)—My darling aunt!—London Answers.

Practice and Preaching.
"For the love of heaven, Amanda," said the Rev. Dr. Fourthly, calling to his wife in tones of thunder, "come and take this squalling baby out of the room before she drives me crazy. I'm writing a sermon on 'Bearing One Another's Burdens.'"—London Tit-Bits.

The Great Trouble.
"It is every woman's duty to keep young as long as possible," she said. "Yes," he admitted, "but the great trouble is that so many young women insist on keeping young after it is impossible."—Chicago Record-Herald.

He Rallied.
First Physician—Did he rally from the operation? Second Physician—Well, I should say so; just look at that black eye he gave me.—Exchange.

When you make one mistake don't make another by trying to lie out of it.

Many a man's only chance to win a girl lies in the fact that her family are opposed to him.

A new broom sweeps clean, but a new servant girl seldom stays long enough to perform that feat.

SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.

THE WALKING HONEYMOON

Favored By Young Couples Who Want To Save Their Money.

Elmer Roberts in Collier's Weekly. The walking honeymoon is a custom. Young couples who prefer to keep their money or who haven't any for a wedding trip by train, swing gknapsacks over their shoulders on the wedding day and set out for a week's tramp, stopping over night at the roadside tavern. I remember being told a story in the Bavarian Alps of the gloomy young man whose extreme melancholy at the village inn caused sympathetic inquiries. He confessed that he had been married the day before to the belle of the village, and as they didn't have means for both of them to take a wedding trip, he had been obliged to tramp alone.

The principle of utility of training the youth into material for a good soldier and into a subject who will be qualified to contribute to the collective good of the state, inspires the German gymnastic system, the system which American turners at the great Frankfort tournament last year found to be uncomparable. The American or the English athlete, because of the development of his individuality under different school and social conditions, will not surrender himself unreservedly into the hands of the instructor. He thinks he knows better how the exercises should be taken and the feat performed than the instructor, that the instructor's method is all very well for other persons or very good for the average pupil, but that he knows better how he should do the thing. The German does the exercise as he is taught, machine-like possibly, but with highly trained precision. The team work is excellent. Germany, outside the schools, has 8,000 gymnastic clubs with 902,000 men in them.

The cherry blossoms are now in bloom in Werder, a village and district about 10 miles from Berlin. The newspapers have been publishing bulletins for days regarding the progress of the buds and speculating on the days they would be at their perfection with somewhat the same earnestness as the betting chances on the Futurity are calculated. The Emperor and the Empress have been to see them, and on the same day were probably a quarter of a million Berliners.

Mr. Wash Orrell Hurt.

While engaged in painting a residence on Walker avenue yesterday Mr. Washington C. Orrell had the misfortune to fall from a scaffold to the ground, a distance of fully ten feet. He fell head-first and was stunned somewhat by the fall. He was carried to his home, 908 Church street, and a physician summoned. There were several cuts about the head and it will probably be several days before the injured man is able to resume his work. It was thought at first that he was killed and in fact it is remarkable that he was hurt no worse.

WILL SPEAK HERE

NEXT TUESDAY WEEK.

E. G. Sherrill, Democratic county chairman, yesterday received a message stating that United States Senator F. M. Simmons would make a political speech in the city on Tuesday evening, Oct. 11. It is probable that the speaking will take place in the court house. Senator Simmons is an eloquent speaker and will be heard by a large crowd.

THOMAS DIXON'S REPLY.

He Takes Issue With a Critic Regarding "The Sins of the Father."

In his criticism of Thomas Dixon's latest play, "The Sins of the Father," the reviewer in the Richmond "Times-Dispatch" contended that there were certain features of the production that constituted an offense against moral decency. This contention brought forth the following reply from Mr. Dixon:

To the Editor of the Times-Dispatch: Permit me a few words of reply to my critic "W. D. C." who attacks my play, "The Sins of the Father" in this morning's issue.

To say that I am surprised at his position is to mildly express it—I am sure he could not find a single white woman of culture and intelligence in the crowd of 2,000 who witnessed yesterday's performance who will agree with one of his hostile statements. Scores of the best women I have the honor of knowing—Southern white women, have thanked me with deep feeling for writing the play. Mrs. Elizabeth Gilmer, a refined and brilliant Southern lady woman from New Orleans, who writes for the New York Journal as "Dorothy Dix" saw our last rehearsal in New York and wrote me a personal letter from which I quote a few sentences:

"No Southerner can deny that just such a tragedy as it portrays has happened a thousand times. Its problem is the most terrible of all the sex problems with which we have to deal, but it is puerile cowardice to shut our eyes to it and refuse to face it. Every quad-room and octoroon is a visible witness of this yellow peril that menaces every hearthstone, that endangers the health and life of every pure white and threatens the very sanctity of the race. It is a bold theme you have taken but you have handled it with a marvelous dignity, delicacy and reserve. Your drama is more than a play. It is a sermon, a tract, a clarion call to maintain the purity of the white race that must thrill the heart of every man who listens to it and fill with gratitude women who have so often been the patient and pitiful sufferers of such conditions."

My critic says the play is "blatantly indecent." Will he be good enough to point out a single indecent word or picture in it from start to finish? He declares it to be "obnoxious." The only man to whom it could be possibly obnoxious is one who is guilty of the sin it paints in vivid and terrible colors. I don't expect him to like it. I did not set out to write a defense of such men. Their crimes can't be defended. Who else should treat such a theme but a Southerner? Who else could do it? The South needs no pusillanimous defense of her criminals. Certainly I am not the man who cares to stoop to such an effort. The business of the dramatist is to hold the mirror up to nature. I have done this in "The Sins of the Father" and to repeat my assertion that it is done with tenderness and delicacy. No man or woman with a clean heart and life can find anything "coarse" or "indecent" or "obnoxious" in it. If so, you will have to stop all the preachers from reading the Ten Commandments in public. If my play is indecent every evangelist and every pastor in America is equally guilty with me when he dares to read God's Word and tell his people the truth.

Holding a Revival.

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Andrews, of this city, evangelists of the Independent Christian church, are holding a revival in a church of that denomination near Burlington.

FLESH-FORMING FOOD.

When you buy a package of Samose, the great flesh-forming food, weigh yourself and see how much you gain in the first week's use. Howard Gardner will tell of many of his customers who a month or so ago were thin, pale and haggard, but who are now, through the use of Samose, plump, strong and happy, with perfect health and attractive flesh. He has seen so many instances of the wonderful power of Samose to restore the weak and sick to strength and health, and to make good natural flesh that he gives his personal guarantee with every package of Samose he sells to refund the money if it does not prove satisfactory.

Samose is a pure preparation, and can be used with absolute confidence by the most delicate. It gives remarkable results with children who are weak and run down and without appetite. Sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50c.

A Good Position

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the Wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month, with good chance of advancement. The National Telegraph institute operates six official institutes in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., Philadelphia, Pa., Memphis, Tenn., Davenport, Ia., Columbia, S. C., or Portland, Ore., according to where you wish to enter.

AS WATTERSON SEES IT

If Roosevelt Carries New York "It's All Over But Shouting For 1912."

Louisville, Sept. 29.—Under the caption, "Vae Victis," Mr. Watterson says in the Courier-Journal:

"Confirmed by the events of yesterday and the day before at Saratoga little need be added in further explanation. The fate of the 'old guard,' the triumph of the Colonel, each tells its own story. With all the resources of an established and powerful organization the command of unlimited money and the backing, direct or indirect, of most of the daily newspapers of the city and State of New York, Woodruff, Barnes and Company, men of personal character, obviously standing to the principles and by the flag of their party—go down in ignominious defeat."

"Riding the bobtail filly, 'Insurgent,' a late entry, carrying many handicaps, the Colonel leads after the first quarter and comes down the homestretch and under the string at a canter."

"To a frazzle," says he, and "frazzle" it is.

"But what of the 'Ides of November,' to use the Blackburn formula, what about vindicting the platform and electing a ticket which puts the official seal upon insurgency and in its length, breadth and thickness embodies the Roosevelt scheme of recreating the Republican party after his own image?"

"As the Colonel is a law unto himself, his art of war is a surprise to his adversaries. Thus far he has played Bonaparte with amazing similitude and success. Like the sleepy old Austrian archdukes and the dull-eyed German field marshals who went down before Napoleon in Italy and on the Rhine have the concealed newspapers and the boss politicians gone down before Theodore at Saratoga. Their rout is complete, their humiliation overwhelming. He not only beats and scorns them, but he tells them how he did it."

"Yet, nevertheless and notwithstanding, it will not do for the leader to carry his leading too far, to grow overconfident of himself and unduly disdainful of his antagonists, because not infrequently the despised bosses, who, as the Colonel says, have made the very name of politician odious to the people possess a way peculiar to themselves, when defeated in the open, of even attaining their ends in the dark."

"Colonel Roosevelt throws down the gauge of battle and proclaims the gospel of arbitray power, resolved to stand or fall by the result of the State election immediately at hand. If the Colonel loses, he will at least know his fate. If he wins, it will be all over but the shouting in 1912."

"In other words, if the conservative forces of order and law upon the most advantageous field for the successful deploying of those forces cannot in November stop the onward march of this conquering hero they need not hope to effect the necessary union to do it in the national Republican convention and the final Presidential election two years hence."

"It is up to the newspapers of New York to make good or to peter out in impotent rage. If they do not cease their personal ridicule and abuse, which does not in the least hurt the Colonel, and accept the gauge of battle he has offered, they may as well shut up shop and go home."

Death of T. W. Frost At San Antonio, Texas.

News has reached here of the death a short while ago at San Antonio, Texas, of T. W. Frost, a well known Western Union construction man. He lived here a short while three years ago and married Miss Bessie Smith, a sister of Mrs. J. W. Brady. His wife died not long after the marriage.

Held For Court.

In Municipal court yesterday morning Jake Spivey was found guilty of uttering a forged check, being held for Superior court in a bond of $100. This was the only case on the docket.

When the bore cracks a joke—it is never all that it is cracked up to be.

THE MANTILLA.

A Spanish Woman Answers the Question, "Why Do You Wear It?"

The writer once asked of a well known lady of the Spanish aristocracy who was seated in the box of the president of a corrida in Madrid, "Why do you wear a mantilla?" and the fair duchess replied: "Because we all wear a mantilla at a bullfight or at any truly Spanish function. It is the proper thing to do, and we do it."

A little later as I strolled among a group of aficionados I ventured to ask a woman of the people over whose head and shoulders was also thrown a mantilla why all Spanish women, to whatever class they belonged, wore this national headgear, if it may be called thus.

This woman was sitting in the open air, and I was thinking that a large straw hat would have protected her better from the burning rays of the sun and been quite as picturesque. She replied in that droning, warm tone so typical of the Spanish: "Well, I happened to have often thought of this, and I think the reason why we all wear the mantilla is because we Spanish women are most careful about our hair. We think the chief charms of a woman are her eyes and her hair. And, as you may see, we all have splendid, thick, lustrous hair, and we are supposed to have, many of us, fascinating eyes. Now, why should we hide our elaborately arranged hair under a hat and conceal our eyes in the shade cast by the brim of a hat?"

No doubt this woman was right. Parisian elegance to the Spanish women of the upper classes may have its attractions, but they, as their less fortunate compatriots, all agree that beautiful hair and expressive eyes are more important. * * * And both of these may be cultivated.—London Mail.

THE FIRST WINDMILLS.

Could Work Only When the Wind Blew From a Certain Point.

Windmills are said to have been introduced into England by the Knights of St. John, who observed them in use among the Saracens in the Crusades, but how long they had been in existence before this it is not possible to ascertain. A water mill was built in Bohemia in the year 718, for an old chronicler mentions it, going on to say that "before that time all the mills in Bohemia were windmills set upon the summit of hills."

For hundreds of years windmills were among the most important adjuncts of industry, yet they hardly changed from the rude and primitive design of earliest days. They were fixed in one position, and so could only be worked when the wind blew from a certain quarter, while the four sails boasted no slats or checking apparatus of any kind, which must have been most inconvenient at times.

The first idea of arranging a mill so that it could be worked "when'er the wind did blow" was that of tethering an ordinary mill in the middle of a pond by means of ropes. When the wind shifted the ropes were loosed and the mill dragged around until the sails were caught by the wind, and it was then again tethered as before.

Later on a great pole, which was worked on the principle of a turntable, was affixed to the mill. Not until 1500 did Holland, the land of windmills, introduce a movable dome carrying the sail axle. The dome ran on rollers and was shifted around by means of the pole mentioned above. These ancient mills were often of massive build, being made of brick or stone, and later entirely of wood.—London Globe.

The Helmet That Fell.

Roqueblanc, the deformed jester of Louis XIV., contrived to get out of many a scrape by his ready wit. One day he went to the king to ask his pardon for having struck off the helmet of one of his sentinels who had failed to give him the military salute. Louis, who knew his man, wondered that Roqueblanc should crave his pardon for so venial an offense and said to him, "This is a serious matter, Roqueblanc, but I will pardon you this time." It afterward turned out that the soldier's head was in the helmet and fell with it to the ground.—Argonaut.

The Astonishing Part.

Lord Townshend at the battle of Dettingen was standing quite near a drummer boy whose brains were dashed out by a cannon ball. His lordship gazed on the horrible spectacle for some moments in silence.

At last an old officer spoke up and said: "Why is your lordship surprised? Such things must happen in war." "I know it," was the reply, "but what astonishes me is that a boy with so much brains should be here at all."

A Bright Outlook.

"Do you—er—do you think, Miss Dobleigh, that you will be—er—engaged next Thursday evening?" asked Tompy very bashfully.

"Well, really, Mr. Tompy," replied Ethel, "I don't know, but if you can get up spunk enough between now and then to do your share I think there's a fair prospect that I shall be."

And Tompy did.—Harper's Weekly.

Where It Hurts.

"Say, I have an awful pain. I wonder if it is appendicitis? Can you tell me on what side one gets it?"

"Why, on the inside, of course."—Columbia Jester.

Bad Selection.

"Goodness me, but that woman's makeup is loud."

"It is that. She should have used noiseless powder."—Baltimore American.

ONE SPECIALIST'S METHOD.

Uses Mother Nature in Treatment of Patients.

New York Tribune.
A leading specialist who says he is working Mother Nature as hard as he can as an aid in his treatment of plump patients always prescribes mushrooming in autumn. It has to be done early morning, and light breakfast on these conditions, with the bending over to pick up the delectable morsels, make a fine combination for weight reduction.

Earlier in the season weeding is a favorite specific, and he has a number of patients who are contributing to his many collection. The specimens he gathers for are rare in the countryside where each sojourns, and usually cannot be found without lengthy and frequent tramping. When asked what he did to keep his patients out of doors in town the specialist said:

"I tell them to go from the Plaza to Washington Arch on one side of the avenue and look at the hats in the windows, and to walk up on the opposite side for the same purpose, and it works like a charm, they tell me."

Your kidney trouble may be of long standing, it may be either acute or chronic, but whatever it is Foley's Kidney Remedy will aid you to get rid of it quickly and restore your natural health and vigor. "One bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy made me well," J. Sibbitt, of Grand View, Wis., is taking it now." Sold by all druggists.

In reaping the rewards of married life," says the Cynical Bachelor, "the average man finds matrimony to be a binder of a binder than a reaper."

It Saved His Leg.

Reliable Medicine—NOT A NARCOTIC
Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cleared the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in short time. Foley's Honey and Tar many times saved us much trouble and are never without it in the house." DEEP SEA WATER.

Bottles With Which Samples Are Taken From Ocean Depths

The water bottle for getting water for analysis from selected depths in the ocean is a cylinder of brass, German silver or other metal which resists the corrosion of sea water, generally about two inches in diameter and twelve or fourteen inches long, with upward opening valve at the top and bottom, connected together on a central stem. Lugs are cast on the side of the cylinder for conveniently securing it at any point along the length of the line by which it is to be lowered into the sea. During the lowering of the line the valves of the bottle are kept unsealed by the passage of the water through the cylinder during its descent, but when the motion is reversed the valves seat themselves and are locked by the descent of a small propeller in the framework above the upper valve, which rides idly on a sleeve during the lowering of the bottle, but descends along a screw thread to press the valves upon their seats when the line commences to be hauled up. A specimen of the water at the depth to which the water bottle has descended is thus brought to the surface confined within the bottle, and a series of specimens from different depths may be obtained at one haul by securing a series of water bottles at the required intervals along the sounding line.—Scientific American.

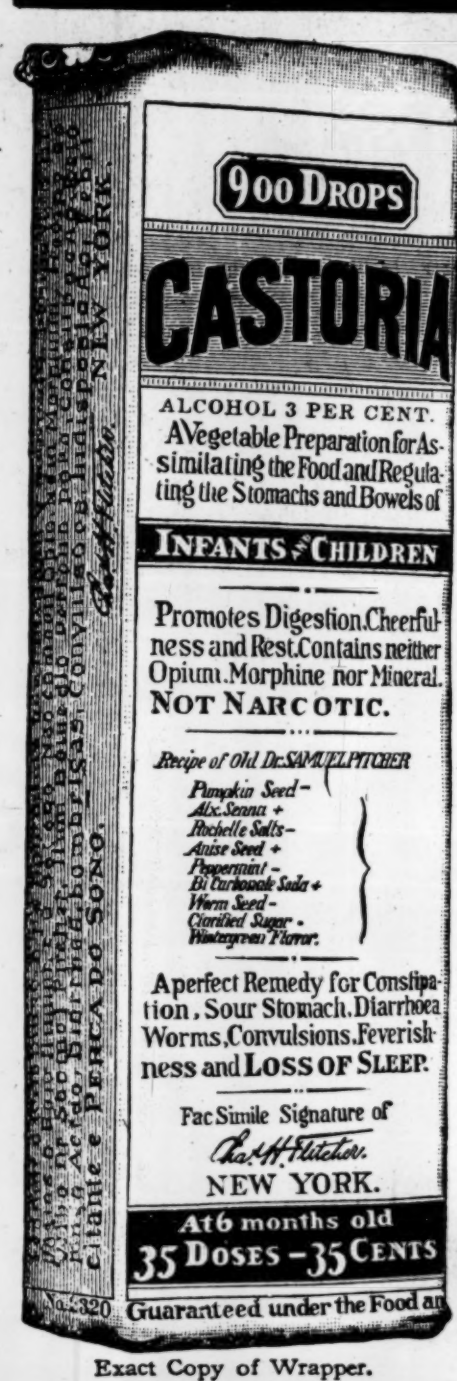

When Merit Wins.

When the medicine you take cures your disease, tones up your system and makes you feel better, stronger and more vigorous than before. That is what Foley's Kidney Pills do for you, in all cases of backache, headache, nervousness, loss of appetite, sleeplessness and general weakness that is caused by any disorder of the kidneys or bladder. Sold by all Druggists.

MEETING OF WOMAN'S CLUB.

All Members Are Asked To Be On Hand Next Saturday Morning.

The regular monthly meeting of the Greensboro Woman's Club will be held in the assembly room of the Carnegie library next Saturday morning, Oct. 1, at 10:30 o'clock, and it is hoped that every member will make an effort to attend.

Several new applications for membership are in the hands of the executive committee, and others desiring to join are asked to send their names to Mrs. Whitsett before Saturday, in order that they may be voted on at this meeting. Otherwise, remember, they go over until November—losing an entire month of work in the departments.

Members of the Junior League committees are especially urged to be present and report to the chairman as business of importance will come before them immediately after the regular club meeting.

Remembered Firemen.

Mr. C. C. Townsend yesterday sent to Chief Fred N. Taylor, of the Fire Department, a check for $25 as a token of his appreciation of the services of the firemen Wednesday in saving his residence from being burned. Chief Taylor requests that Mr. Townsend be publicly thanked for this gift and assured of the hearty appreciation of the firemen.

PRESCRIPTION DRUGGIST.

SUFFRAGISTS AND THE "FINEST"

Women Are Sure Chivalrous Policemen Are on Their Side.

New York Tribune.

The women who have been talking woman suffrage in the streets of New York this summer are all firmly convinced that the policemen all believe in votes for women. On no other theory, they say, can they explain the fatherly interest which the guardians of the law seem to take in the success of their meetings and the comfort of their speakers. Once a stalwart member of the force even offered to carry back the orator's soapbox to the corner grocery from which it had been borrowed, but, needless to say, the women in charge of the meeting refused to allow such a sacrifice of official dignity.

On another occasion, when the evening air and the roar of Broadway began to tell on feminine vocal cords and there was an ominous crack in the speaker's voice, some one touched her arm, and she turned to find a policeman at her side offering a glass of sodal water.

At a meeting held last week a policeman gave what is considered the final proof of devotion to the "cause." In response to the contemptuous inquiry of a bystander, "How would you like to have women judges?" a bluecoated champion responded: "I'd just as soon have women judges as men. I think a woman judge would be great."

CONVERSION.

This the Subject At Centenary Methodist Church Last Night.

Conversion was the subject of a profound sermon by Rev. D. M. Litzaker at Centenary Methodist church last night. His text was from John 3:3. "Except a man be born again he cannot see the kingdom of God." A spirit of great earnestness pervaded the entire audience as the preacher closed his powerful presentation of his great theme. Interest in this revival seems to increase with each service. The woman's meeting at four o'clock yesterday was one of prayer and testimony, nearly every one present taking part in the service.

Today the services will be continued, at the usual hours. The men's meeting at 1 p. m., to which all the laymen of the church are invited; the women's and children's meeting at 4 p. m., the young ladies' prayer meeting at 7:30 p. m. and preaching at 8 o'clock.

Sunday School Picnic At Hines' Chapel Saturday.

There will be a Sunday school picnic at Hines' Chapel on Saturday, October 1. Everybody invited to come and bring a full basket. There will be speeches by prominent Sunday school workers.

Started by the Unmasking of the Pair of Frauds.

Not until boarding houses cease to exist will all their romances be written. Shabby romances, some of them are, like that of the young woman who got so tired of being called "poor thing" because she received no invitations and had to eat all her meals at the boarding house table that she took to eating alone once in awhile at a cheap restaurant and then brazenly lying about the friends who had invited her to dinner.

There was a young man in that house who never went anywhere either. The first night the girl stayed out life's desolation nearly overpowered him. "Even that poor little white faced soul has made friends who want her," he said. "Nobody wants me. I'm no good on earth."

Then on rare occasions his place at the table was vacant. "New friends?" asked the landlady.

"Yes," said the young man. "One night the man and the girl met in a twenty-five cent restaurant. They blushed; they fenced; they finally confessed."

"We're a pair of frauds," said the girl. "It's awful to think that tonight when we go home we will have to swear that we have been dining with friends."

"Well," said the young man, "ain't we?"—New York Press.
